Income and expenditure:

Income is € 4 million higher than budgeted due to increased funding from governments, private funds given to the Robert Carr civil society Networks Fund (RCNF) and higher income from legacies and bequests. Compared to 2014, income is € 0.6 million lower, as 2014 saw an additional contribution of approximately € 2 million received from the Nationale Postcode Loterij, among other things.

Higher expenses on our objectives mainly related to strengthening civil society organisations via RCNF and expenditure relating to the implementation of a grants round for innovative projects focusing on earlier detection of HIV infections. We also initiated the Hands Off! programme. The Youth programme was able to spend more than € 0.3 million on the objective 'Removing Barriers'. Due to the postponement of the grants round for scientific research, expenditure on this activity was lower than budgeted and below the figure for 2014. The grants round is planned to take place in the beginning of 2016. We could spend a total of € 1.3 million above budget on our objectives. Fundraising expenses were lower than budgeted. Costs of management and administration rose proportionally with the number of activities and due to an investment in strengthening the organisation in the areas of project management and project control.

Result and reserves

The result amounted to € 134,000. We budgeted a negative result amounting to € 3 million. Annually we build earmarked reserves and earmarked funds for earmarked sources of income which are not spent or are partly spent. Spending these sources of income will give a negative result. This applies to, among other things, the MaxART project, for which we received all funds from the Nationale Postcode Loterij in 2010 and 2014 in advance. Expenses of this project are annually attributed to the result. We budgeted in 2015 to spend more from reserves and funds than expenditure to build new reserves. As income was higher than expected, however, reserves remained on the same level. Higher income from legacies and bequests are reserved for expenditure in 2016. We were able to add nearly € 0.4 million to the Investment Fund of STOP AIDS NOW! due to higher income from own fundraising. Also the postponement of the grants round scientific research to 2016 contributes to higher reserves than budgeted. From the MaxART earmarked reserves, nearly € 0.5 million less has been subtracted in 2015, because a number of payments were made in the beginning of 2016.

Key figures

The expense ratio for the objectives was over 90 per cent in 2015. The actual expense income ratio was lower than budgeted. As explained above, income was higher. We were not able to spend all funds on our objectives in the year under review. This is why we partly reserved this for 2016; this applies to scientific research and to expenses from the RCNF, among other things.

The actual expense ratio for fundraising expenditure at 12.5 per cent is much lower than budgeted and also much lower compared to 2014. On the one hand, this is due to higher income received from legacies and bequests and a contribution from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation to RCNF. On the other hand, fewer fundraising activities were implemented compared to previous years. The actual percentage of expenditure on management and administration of 3.2 per cent shows a small rise compared to 2014, due to our strengthening the organisation in the areas of project management and project control.

Compared to similar organisations, the percentage is relatively low. The average percentage management and administration of similar organisations that participated in the 'Transparantprijs 2015' is 5.4 per cent.

Outlook

We budget to spend more than €51 million on our objectives in 2016. This figure is €13 million more than that of 2015. Our budget for total expenditure in 2016 is €55.6 million.

As of 2016 we begin a new grants round of the Robert Carr Civil society networks Fund. We have also entered into two new strategic partnerships with the Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs in the areas of 'Sexual and reproductive health and rights' (SRGR) and 'Lobbying and advocacy'.

The 2016 budgeted result is €3.6 million negative. To a large extent this means that in 2016 we will spend income received in previous years and reserved for our objectives. In addition, we will allocate nearly €0.5 million from reserves to the multi-year marketing strategy Aids Fonds, to further develop our marketing strategy and maintain our own fundraising income at a high level.

The management and administration expense ratio is planned to fall from 3.2 per cent to 2.6 per cent in 2016. We will spend 99 per cent of income on the objectives.

In 2016, we will reduce the costs of RIVM activities by 4 per cent. The total expenditure on objectives under the brand Soa Aids Nederland will rise slightly, due to the rollout of the project 'Testing Calculator' funded by VriendenLoterij, among other things.

Explanation of Accounting Principles

Business Address

The business address of Stichting Aids Fonds - STOP AIDS NOW! - Soa Aids Nederland is Keizersgracht 392, Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

Activities

The activities of Stichting Aids Fonds - STOP AIDS NOW! - Soa Aids Nederland focus on five main objectives to achieve a world without HIV/AIDS and other STIs.

1. More people have an HIV test and tests for other STIs
2. Fewer barriers for the most vulnerable groups
3. Social strengthening of the position and influence of civil society organisations
4. Increased scientific research
5. information and awareness-raising

The annual accounts have been prepared in compliance with Guideline 650 of the 'Reporting Guidelines for Fundraising Organisations'.

The accounting principles used for the evaluation of assets and liabilities and determination of the result are based on historical costs.

Use of estimates

Preparing the annual accounts requires for the Board of Directors to exercise judgement and to use estimates and assumptions affecting the application of accounting principles and reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and income and expenditure. The actual outcomes may deviate from these estimates. The estimates and underlying assumptions are evaluated on an ongoing basis. Changes in accounting estimates are entered in the period when the changes occur and in future periods affected by the changes.

Principles used for the valuation of assets and liabilities

Unless otherwise indicated, assets and liabilities are entered at nominal value.

Tangible fixed assets are valued at acquisition cost, net of accumulated linear depreciation, according to their estimated economic lifetime.

Financial instruments comprise receivables, cash and cash equivalents, creditors and other payables. Financial instruments are first entered at fair value. After the first entry, financial instruments are valued as described below.

Aids Fonds – STOP AIDS NOW! - Soa Aids Nederland does not use complex financial instruments.

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash and bank balances. Cash and cash equivalents are valued at nominal value.

Receivables and deferred income are valued at nominal value less a provision for doubtful debts. Provisions are determined on the basis of individual judgement on the recoverability of the receivables.

Reserves and funds

Disbursement restriction of the special-purpose reserves is determined by the Board of Directors, with no obligation. The Board of Directors may remove this restriction.

Earmarked funds represent amounts with a specific purpose designated by third parties.

Policy continuity reserve and equalisation reserve

Effective and efficient use of resources is a core element in our financial policy. It is also necessary to build up capital to guarantee continuity of the organisation.

For activities under the Soa Aids Nederland brand there is the equalisation reserve of 10 per cent of the annual costs under this brand, which is the maximum allowed by the grant provider RIVM. This is sufficient to manage potential financial risks. The risk that a substantial part of the income of Soa Aids Nederland decline rapidly is very small. Possible changes in grant amounts take place gradually and in consultation with the grant providers. At year end 2015 the equalisation reserve is €324,000.

For the Aids Fonds brand and the STOP AIDS NOW! brand, there is one joint continuity reserve of €2 million plus 10 per cent of the combined annual costs of both brands. On that basis, at year end 2015 the required reserve total was €2.7 million. At year end 2015 the continuity reserve reached this level due to the addition of €70,000.

The brands have diverse sources of income. Both brands have substantial income from different forms of fundraising. In addition, the brands receive funds from Dutch and foreign governments and private funds, including lotteries.

Diversification of sources of income limits the risk that all income will disappear simultaneously.

Income entails obligations towards staff and the organisation as well as obligations towards grant recipients and partners.

Obligations towards staff and the organisation for the two brands amount to a combined figure of just under €7 million annually, representing approximately 20 per cent of the combined income of the two brands. The remainder concerns obligations towards grant recipients and partners. Virtually each of the obligations towards grant recipients and partners have the condition that we have actually received the funds from our institutional and private donors. In this way the risk that we cannot meet our grant and project obligations due to a sudden decrease in income is small. Our continuity reserve of €2.7 million is sufficient to guarantee the continuity of the organisation in the event of a significant reduction in income.

The continuity reserve complies with the maximum of the guideline 'Reserves for Fundraising Organisations' of Goede Doelen Nederland, included in the CBF Guidelines. The maximum continuity reserve allowed according to the aforementioned guideline is 1.5x the annual costs of the combined organisation of the three brands. Based on current organisational costs of the organisation, the maximum is €17.4 million in 2015.

Proceeds from product sales

Proceeds from product sales are entered under income at gross profit value. Gross profit is the net sales less the cost of the products sold. Net sales represent the proceeds less discounts and sales taxes. Cost represents the purchase value of the products plus costs (paid to third parties) directly related to procurement and sales of the products. Costs incurred by Aids Fonds are accounted for as fundraising costs.

Allocation of costs

Costs are allocated to the objective, fundraising expenses and management and administration based on the following:

- directly attributable costs are allocated directly;
- based on an hourly registration system and hourly rates, implementation costs own organisation are allocated to the objective, fundraising expenses and management and administration.

Costs of implementation own organisation

Implementation costs 'own organisation' represent staff costs, accommodation expenses, office and general expenses, and depreciation incurred by the organisation. Distribution of the implementation costs own organisation among the various programmes and projects occurs on the basis of actual hours recorded under programmes and projects.

Staff costs

Staff costs (salaries, social insurance costs, etc.) are not a separate line item in the statement of income and expenditure. These costs are included in other items of the statement of income and expenditure. For further specification, we refer to Specification of allocations in the annual accounts.

The pension scheme adopted by Stichting Aids Fonds - STOP AIDS NOW! - Soa Aids Nederland is managed by Pensioenfonds Zorg en Welzijn. Pension contributions are accounted for as staff costs at the time contributions are due. Contributions paid in advance are entered as prepayments provided this leads to a repayment or a reduction in future payments. Contributions not yet paid are entered as a liability on the balance sheet.

Costs of management and administration

Costs of management and administration are costs incurred by the organisation in relation to (internal) management and administrative activities that are not allocated to objective or fundraising expenses.

Goede Doelen Nederland has prepared recommendations for applying this guideline.

Stichting Aids Fonds - STOP AIDS NOW! - Soa Aids Nederland follows these recommendations and has grouped the following components under the entry management and administration:

- Management: implementation costs of Directors and Managers, in so far as these costs are not in direct relation to the objective, consistent with the hourly registration system;
- Operations: implementation costs of the Facility Management and Events Office, in so far as these costs are not in direct relation to the objective, consistent with the hourly registration system;
- Finance / controlling.

The organisation strives to maintain costs of management and administration between 3 per cent and 6 per cent of the total expenditure.

The implementation costs of the HR department, ICT department, Documentation Centre and Quality and Learning department are allocated to the objective, to fundraising and to management and administration, proportionate to the number of staff members per department.

Costs fundraising and costs awareness-raising

50 per cent of the costs of private fundraising initiatives are considered to be in relation to the objective (education with regard to awareness-raising). For Aids Fonds and STOP AIDS NOW!, awareness of the AIDS response and civil society participation are important preconditions for realising the objective. For this reason, fundraising initiatives involve education and awareness-raising. Distribution of the costs between fundraising and communication is based on the actual ratio between the two.

In 2009, the Board of Directors assessed the assumptions that the distribution ratio was based on. All components of private fundraising initiatives were assessed according to their educational content and contribution to awareness-raising. This showed that, for example, 60 per cent of the costs incurred for disseminating information to potential donors is debited to education and communication, whereas costs incurred for processing donations and gifts (e.g. bank costs and database costs) are fully attributable to costs of fundraising. In 2016, a new assessment of the distribution ratio will be implemented.

For the Aids Fonds brand and STOP AIDS NOW! brand, there is one joint continuity reserve of € 2 million plus 10 percent of the combined annual costs of both brands. Each brand is responsible for their individual contribution. On that basis, at year end 2015 a continuity reserve total of €2.666 million will be due. As of 1 January, the initial balance of the continuity reserve was €2.596 million, requiring an additional total of €70,000.

The continuity reserve complies with the maximum threshold of the Guideline 'Reserves for Fundraising Organisations' of Goede Doelen Nederland, included in the CBF Guidelines.

Other income from own fundraising	2,604	588	640
Total	14,982	11,783	12,485

Total income from own fundraising is 27 percent higher than budgeted, mainly due to an increase in income derived from legacies and bequests (+ € 1.4 million) and a contribution of the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation for RNCF (+ € 1.7 million). Total income from donations and gifts was slightly below that budgeted for.

Income is 20 percent higher than in 2014, due to on the one hand an increase in income derived from legacies and bequests and a contribution of the Bill and Melinda Gates foundation, and on the other hand reduced income from donations and gifts. Proceeds from donors by way of direct debit decreased by 3 percent and casual donations decreased by 1 percent.

Proceeds from legacies and bequests are entered in the financial year in which the amount can be reliably established. In 2015, 32 new files were opened (in 2014: 39), comprising bequests (14) and legacies (18). There are 54 open files remaining from 2015 and previous years, nine of which are encumbered by Usufruct.

Other income from own fundraising represents mainly grants from business entities for specific projects, including contributions from non-government organisations, such as other NGOs and preferred partners. The most significant contributions received in 2015 are for the RNCF, the HIV in Europe Initiative project, Capital for Good and the Amsterdam Institute for Global Health and Development.

Costs of own fundraising	1,868	2,487	2,470
Expense ratio fundraising	12.5%	21.1%	19.8%

The expense ratio for 'own fundraising' of 12.5 percent is well below the forecast budget and well below the equivalent actual figure for 2014. This is due to increased income from legacies, bequests and for RCNF, as well as fewer fundraising activities implemented compared to previous years.

Implementation costs own organisation are 9 per cent higher than budgeted in 2015. This is mainly due to higher staff costs, whereas other implementation costs are as budgeted.

Overspend of staff costs is due to an increase in staffing (10.5 FTE) and the hiring of temporary personnel on behalf of extra projects and programmes, in particular Hands Off!, projects of the Youth programme, preparations for the new programme 'Beat the Aids Epidemic' and to strengthen project control. Employer contributions are as budgeted.

Appendix 4 - Disbursements of the five STOP AIDS NOW! preferred partners

The Partner Fund is a partnership of five organisations (Aids Fonds, Cordaid Memisa, Hivos, ICCO and Oxfam Novib) whose objective is to expand and enhance the quality of the Dutch contribution to the worldwide AIDS response. In 2015, each partner received €500,000 from the Partner Fund.

Each partner enters the Partner Fund payment in an earmarked fund in compliance with 'Reporting Guidelines for Fundraising Organisations' (Guideline 650, Article 407). Partners are permitted to deduct a maximum of 10 per cent for overheads. Partners provide the substantive and financial details on new, current and settled projects financed by the partner payment, including newly committed projects with pledged totals per project and payments for current and new projects in the relevant financial year.

In addition to the partner payment, in some cases partners received grants from STOP AIDS NOW!, such as contributions from Nationale Postcode Loterij. The partners managed these additions in their respective STOP AIDS NOW! earmarked fund.
